

The 45th Wind Energy Symposium Call for Papers and Posters

We JWEA is inviting of "General research papers" and "Posters" for the 45th Wind Energy Symposium. Those who wish to make a research presentation and/or poster presentation, please register an account on the dedicated website "Confit" first. Please enter your abstract after registering for an account. In order to operate the symposium more effectively, the abstracts will be reviewed by the planning and management committee of the association, and will inform you of the acceptance or rejection. If accepted, you will be required to submit your paper and/or poster (PDF) within the specified period. Please note that Posters must be uploaded separately in Image format for publication (Details will be announced later).

Please refer to the following pages for the Instructions for Submission and Format for papers and posters. The presenter must be a member of the Japan Wind Energy Association (JWEA). (Enrollment Procedure : <http://www.jwea.or.jp/menu2-1.html>)

As before, excellent oral presenters among student members and individual members under the age of 35 will be awarded the "Excellent Presentation Award", and individuals or groups that produce excellent posters will be awarded the "Poster Award". They will be awarded at the general meeting of the next fiscal year (scheduled for the end of May 2024 ).
